REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS: Enter all costs related to this program according to the Tribe's approved work plan.

The Safe and Drug Free Schools and Communities program is a prevention program. Funds for this program are used to engage youth (including and especially runaway and homeless youth) in preventing violence and in preventing substance abuse. Funded agencies must identify at least one quantifiable outcome associated with violence prevention, and at least one quantifiable outcome associates with alcohol and/or drug abuse, and track and report on those outcomes. More specific guidelines for formulating and reporting outcomes under SDFSC will be issued in October, 2008.

Reimbursable expenses under SDFSC include staff salaries and benefits, educational material, outreach activities, program supplies, space and utility costs that are necessary for the operation of the program. Funds from this program may not supplant other funds.
