Consent for Evaluation: A team that includes at least two professionals will evaluate your child's development. The evaluation will be conducted at no cost to you. The initial assessment will help identify outcomes and develop a service plan. Ongoing assessments will occur to monitor your child's progress. We will talk with you about the assessments, and discuss with you the option to include your family's needs, resources, concerns, and priorities. During the course of the evaluation and assessment, members of the team will 1) consult with you identifying the developmental areas to be addressed in the evaluation and why they are important; 2) with your consent, review relevant records, identifying the reasons for the review; 3) identify, evaluate and assess your child's development in the areas listed below, and 4) meet with you and other members to develop a final report.

Areas to be Evaluated / Assessed	Instruments	Type of Specialist

Before evaluation or assessment can begin, your consent is needed. Before you sign below, you should know:

1. Your consent for the evaluation is voluntary. You may refuse consent for particular evaluations while giving consent for others.
2. The recommended evaluations are used to determine your child's eligibility for the Birth to 3 Program.
3. You may withdraw consent at any time. Your consent remains in effect until withdrawn in writing.
4. If you withdraw your consent, the agency cannot do further evaluation in that area of development.

Please read the parent and child rights document enclosed with this notice. This is a summary of our rights; if you would like a full version, please let your Service Coordinator know.
