

Mental Health Disparity Programs

Suicide Prevention. Working with the Injury Section in the Division of Public Health, the Bureau (now Division) of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services in 2001 began a statewide initiative to reduce suicide. Suicide is closely related to depression, bipolar disease, and other major psychiatric states.