

Wisconsin Medicaid—Home and Community-Based Services Waiver Programs

The Medicaid Home and Community-Based Services Waiver Programs help people who are elderly, blind, or disabled continue living in their own homes or in the community, instead of in a state medical facility or nursing home. The community waiver programs are:

- Family Care
- Family Care Partnership
- IRIS

If you are enrolled in Medicaid through a community waiver program, Medicaid may pay for certain supportive services.

Eligibility Requirements

You may be able to enroll in a community waiver program if you meet all the following criteria:

- Are elderly, blind, or disabled
- Are age 18 or older
- Meet income and asset rules specific to the Home and Community-Based Services Waiver Programs (see Income and Assets)
- Meet the nursing home or non-nursing home functional level of care
- Are a citizen or qualifying immigrant and a resident of Wisconsin
- For IRIS, live in your own home or in the community

You may also be able to enroll in a community waiver program if you are enrolled in Medicaid or receive SSI.

Income and Assets

If you are not enrolled in Medicaid or receiving SSI, the following income and asset rules apply (the income amounts may change year to year).

Effective January 1, 2025:

- If your assets are $2,000 or less, you may be able to enroll.
- If your gross monthly income is $2,901 or less, you may be able to enroll. You may have to pay a share of the medical costs depending on your income.
- If your gross monthly income is more than $2,901 and less than $10,854.80, you may be eligible to enroll. You may have to pay a share of the medical costs depending on your income.

If you are married and live with your spouse and you are enrolled in a community waiver program, your spouse's income and many of your joint assets may not be counted. Ask your aging and disability resource center (ADRC) for information on spousal impoverishment protection or see the Medicaid Spousal Impoverishment Protection fact sheet at: www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/library/P-10063.htm.

Cost Sharing

If you are enrolled in a community waiver program, you may have to pay a monthly amount to remain eligible. This is called cost sharing. Your cost share is based on several factors, including your income, housing costs, and medical expenses.
