Your Health Care Benefits

Who will get health care benefits if they meet a deductible?

ANNA: You are not enrolled in a health care plan because you either have too much income or you had access to health insurance when you applied. You can get health care if you meet a deductible. If your family's medical bills add up to your deductible amount, you can get health care benefits for the rest of your deductible period. To get your deductible amount and deductible period, check with your agency.

What is a Fair Hearing and why should I ask for one?

At the hearing, a hearing officer will hear from you and the agency to find out if the decision was right or wrong. You may bring a friend or family member with you to the hearing. You may also be able to get free legal help. To learn more about free legal help, call 1-888-278-0633.

Can I keep my benefits while I wait for my hearing?

Yes, if you are already getting benefits and if you ask for a hearing before your benefits change, you can keep getting the same benefits until the hearing officer makes a decision. If the hearing officer decides that the agency was right, you may need to return the extra benefits that you got after your benefits were supposed to change.

How do I ask for a hearing?

You can ask for a fair hearing and/or a hearing request form at the agency shown on the first page of this notice. Or, you can get a request form at dhs.wisconsin.gov/em/customerhelp. You can send the form or a letter asking for a hearing to the Division of Hearings & Appeals, PO Box 7875, Madison, WI 53707-7875, or fax it to 608-264-9885.
