Information about Your FoodShare Employment and Training (FSET) Services

This letter is to let you know that your FoodShare Employment and Training (FSET) service provider is changing as of April 1, 2015. Your new FSET service provider will be <Insert New Vendor Name>. Your current FSET service provider will be working with your new FSET service provider to make sure you do not have a break in your FSET services.

In March, you will receive a letter from your new FSET service provider welcoming you to their agency.

You do not have to take any action at this time. If you have questions about how your FSET services will be changing before April 1, 2015 or you no longer want to take part in FSET, contact your current FSET service provider listed in the upper right corner of this letter.
