Action Required:

Your Benefits are Due for Renewal

To keep getting your BadgerCare Plus and FoodShare benefits without experiencing a gap or delay in your benefits, you must complete the entire renewal process by Sep. 30, 2016. This includes giving us any proof that we ask for (see the "Proof Needed" section of this letter).

As part of your renewal, you must tell us about any changes in your household or income. If you do not tell us about your changes and you get benefits that you should not have, you may have to pay them back.

To Renew Your FoodShare Benefits

You are required to complete an interview to renew your FoodShare benefits. Call your agency at 888-947-6583 for your interview any day from Sep. 19, 2016 through Oct. 14, 2016. You can do your interview during these business hours: Monday 08:00 AM - 04:30 PM; Tuesday 08:00 AM - 04:30 PM; Wednesday 08:00 AM - 04:30 PM; Thursday 08:00 AM - 04:30 PM; and Friday 08:00 AM - 04:30 PM.

It is important to complete your interview during the dates listed above so that your FoodShare benefits can continue. If you do not complete your interview during these dates, you must call to do your interview before Sep. 30, 2016, or your FoodShare benefits will end.

If you want to report changes before your FoodShare interview, you can complete a renewal form online or by mail:

- Online – Go to access.wi.gov. See the online instructions below.
- By mail – Review the summary attached to this letter. If anything on the summary has changed, draw a line through it and write the new information, including the date of the change. If you have new information to report about your household or income, write it on the back of the signature page. Once you have made these changes, sign it and mail or fax it back to the agency listed at the top of this letter. You may send proof of your information along with your renewal form.

Other Proof

Work Registration Requirement for Individuals Ages 16 through 59

All FoodShare members ages 16 through 59 must be registered for work unless they are considered exempt. A member will be registered for work when he or she is determined eligible for FoodShare, unless the member meets an exemption.

A member may be considered exempt and may not need to register for work if any of the following apply:

- The member is younger than age 16 or older than age 59.
- The member is already working at least 30 hours per week (or getting weekly earnings that equal 30 times the federal minimum hourly wage).
- The member is the primary caregiver for a dependent child under age 6 (whether the child lives in your home or out of your home).
- The member is the primary caregiver for a person who cannot care for himself or herself (whether the person lives in your home or out of your home).
- The member is age 16 or 17 and is not listed as the primary person for his or her FoodShare group on the application.
- The member is taking part in an alcohol or other drug abuse (AODA) treatment program.
- The member is getting or has applied for unemployment insurance.

- The member is enrolled at least half-time in a recognized school, training program, or institution of higher learning.
 - The member is physically or mentally unable to work.
 - The member is taking part in certain work programs.

A member may need to provide proof to the agency if he or she meets one of these exemptions.

Note: Although registration for work is required, taking part in a work program is voluntary.

Work Requirement for Able-Bodied Adults Ages 18 through 49

The work requirement for able-bodied adults ages 18 through 49 is different from the work registration requirement stated above. The work requirement for able-bodied adults applies to anyone in your FoodShare group who is age 18 through 49 with no minor children living in the home. These individuals may need to meet a work requirement to keep getting FoodShare benefits unless they are exempt. You will get more information about the work requirement from your agency.

Anyone who does not meet the work requirement may only get up to three months of FoodShare benefits in a 36-month period. Your agency will ask you some questions to see if anyone in your home meets the work requirement or is exempt. You may need to provide proof of your answers.

Anyone who needs to meet the work requirement will be referred to the FoodShare Employment and Training (FSET) program.
