Important Information about Your Time-Limited FoodShare Benefits

Our records show that you are not meeting the work requirement for getting ongoing FoodShare benefits and that you have already used one of your three time-limited FoodShare benefit months. If you do not start meeting the work requirement or meet an exemption from the work requirement, you will use up your three time-limited FoodShare benefit months, and your FoodShare benefits will end.

One way that you can meet the work requirement is by taking part in the FoodShare Employment and Training (FSET) program. The FSET program is a free program that can help you build job skills and find employment. If you want to meet the work requirement by taking part in the FSET program, you must enroll and take part in activities by the start of your third time-limited FoodShare benefit month. Otherwise you will use up your three time-limited benefit months, and your FoodShare benefits will end.

To enroll in the FSET program or to get answers to your questions about FSET, call your FSET service provider at <phone number>, or go to dhs.wisconsin.gov/foodshare/fset.htm.

Certain adults ages 18 through 49 with no minor children living in the home may only get up to 3 months of FoodShare benefits in a 36-month period unless they meet the work requirement or meet an exemption from the work requirement.

How to Meet the Work Requirement

There are three ways to meet the work requirement:

1. Work at least 80 hours each month;
2. Take part in an allowable work program, such as the FSET program, Wisconsin Works (W-2), or a program under the Wisconsin Investment Act (WIA), at least 80 hours each month; or
3. Work and take part in an allowable work program for a combined total of 80 hours each month.

For more information about FSET, go to dhs.wisconsin.gov/foodshare/fset.htm.

Who is Exempt from the Work Requirement?

Some adults do not have to meet the work requirement to get FoodShare benefits and are considered exempt. You may not have to meet the work requirement if any of the following are true:

- You are living with a child under age 18 who is part of the same FoodShare household;
- You are the primary caregiver for a person who cannot care for himself or herself;
- You are the primary caregiver for a child under age 6 who does not live in the home;
- You are physically or mentally unable to work;
- You are pregnant;
- You are receiving or have applied for unemployment insurance;
- You are taking part in an alcohol or other drug abuse (AODA) treatment program;
- You are enrolled in an institution of higher learning at least half-time or more; or
- You are a high school student age 18 or older, attending high school at least half-time.

If you meet one of the exemptions listed above, you should contact your agency at the number listed on the top of page 1 of this letter to report the exemption and find out what kind of proof is needed.
