CONTRACT AGREEMENT
DPH Contract
Prevention and Public Health Fund
Epidemiology and Laboratory Capacity (ELC) Cooperative Agreement

ATTACHMENT A: SCOPE OF WORK

This contract agreement between the State of Wisconsin and the City of Milwaukee supports the Milwaukee County Communicable Disease Surveillance Network (SurvNet) between August 1, 2015 and July 31, 2016.

The following activities have been approved and are funded under PPHF-Epidemiology and Laboratory Capacity grant number 5U50CK000421-02 from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and are administered by the Communicable Diseases Epidemiology Section in the Division of Public Health of the Department of Health Services.

1) Partial personnel and administrative costs for ELC SurvNet Office Assistant

Position is responsible for the data entry, support and coordination of countywide surveillance for all reportable diseases in 19 municipalities in Milwaukee County. This position also serves as a liaison with the WSLH, DPH, LPHAs and other health departments to facilitate the reporting of Category I, immediately notifiable diseases.

2) Partial personnel and administrative cost for Infectious Disease Epidemiologist

Position is responsible developing and distributing monthly reports on communicable disease cases identified in Milwaukee County, and disseminating information on emerging health threats/issues outbreaks and public health advisories or alerts to Milwaukee County partners.

3) General office/operating supplies

Total Contract: $48,569

The City of Milwaukee Health Department will submit monthly invoices itemizing expenditures for services rendered to Elizabeth Brotheridge [elizabeth.brotheridge@dhs.wi.gov]. In addition, to receive reimbursement the City of Milwaukee must also submit a non-itemized monthly expenditure report to DHS600RCARS@dhs.wi.gov. Please see p. 2, #8 of the Grant Agreement with No Prepayments for more detail.
