

HCBS Heightened Scrutiny Public Comment Summaries

There were no comments pertaining to specific provider settings. The summary below is related to the heightened scrutiny process in general.

Full Access to the Community

One comment noted that residential homes on the grounds of a skilled nursing facility are an appropriate use of Medicaid dollars if residents are not kept away from individuals who do not utilize Medicaid home and community-based waiver services.

Any additional comments provided outside the scope of these heightened scrutiny settings or the heightened scrutiny review process were not included in this HCBS Heightened Scrutiny public comment summary.