The light at the end of our tunnel came in the form of Beth, our support parent. She had been through all that we were facing, and she understood everything I was feeling. — A parent

Get Connected

■ Parent to Parent of Wisconsin

We offer parents and caregivers the opportunity to connect one-to-one with a parent of a child with similar special needs.

By connecting parents with each other, we help families by putting them in touch with resources, information and support.

■ Our Services

- Connections to other parents who have “been there”
- Information on local, state and national resources
- Trainings for parents to become Support Parents

■ Who Do We Connect

- Moms, Dads, Step-parents & Grandparents
- Foster & Adoptive Parents
- Parents of
 - preemies, newborns, the teen years and beyond
 - children with chronic illnesses, disabilities, rare disorders, mental health or behavioral issues
- Parents coping with grief
- Parents new to Wisconsin

■ Parents Talk to Parents About

- Health care
- Childcare
- Parenting ideas
- Finding resources
- School transitions
- Celebrating milestones
- Facing challenges and barriers, and more...

■ Making a Match

- Our Parent Coordinator contacts each family requesting a match
- Matches are made based on the child’s diagnosis or special care needs, age, or issues specific to community or school
- Parents connect through a phone call...some matches are short-term — others can become lasting friendships
