BUREAU OF ASSISTED LIVING

STATE OF WISCONSIN
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
SERVICES

Division of Quality Assurance

P-00204 (11/2016)

GENERAL OVERVIEW

The Division of Quality Assurance (DQA) is a division within the Department of Health Services that is responsible for the regulation and licensing of over 40 different programs and facilities that provide health, long-term care, mental health/substance abuse services, and caregiver background checks and investigations.

The Division of Quality Assurance regulates providers who serve the frail elderly; persons with developmental disabilities, mental illness, physical disabilities, sensory disabilities; and, persons with substance abuse problems.

The Bureau of Assisted Living is a bureau within the Division of Quality Assurance that is responsible for the regulation of the following types of providers:

- Adult Day Care (ADC)
- Adult Family Home (AFH)
- Community Based Residential Facility (CBRF)
- Residential Care Apartment Complex (RCAC)

The Division of Quality Assurance does not refer residents for placement in assisted living facilities nor does DQA provide funding to facilities to care for residents.

ASSISTED LIVING FORUM

The Assisted Living Forum is an opportunity for stakeholders involved in assisted living to gather in a collaborative spirit to discuss current issues pertaining to the regulated assisted living environment. The Forum is facilitated by the Division of Quality Assurance, Bureau of Assisted Living.

Stakeholders

Stakeholders may include department regulators, department program bureaus, provider associations, advocates, providers, assisted living business partners, consultants, managed care organizations, and county representatives.

Topics

Forum topics may include interpretation of regulations, public funding issues, best practices, quality improvement, workforce issues, statistics and trends, local and national issues, and public policy.

Format

The Forum meets bi-monthly. The morning session is a general meeting for all three provider groups – AFH, CBRF, and RCAC. The afternoon consists of breakout sessions.
