

The Work Requirement for Adults Ages 18 Through 52

What is the work requirement for adults ages 18 through 52?

It is a federal requirement that some FoodShare members need to meet in order to keep getting FoodShare benefits. It applies to adults ages 18 through 52 who do not have any children under age 18 living in their home and who do not have an exemption.

The FoodShare work requirement is different from FoodShare basic work rules.

How can I meet the work requirement?

There are three ways to meet the work requirement:

1. Work at least 80 hours each month.
2. Take part in an allowable work program at least 80 hours each month, such as:
 - FoodShare Employment and Training (FSET).
 - Wisconsin Works (W-2).
 - Certain programs under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).
3. Both work and take part in an allowable work program for a combined total of at least 80 hours each month.

If I am an adult who needs to meet the work requirement, when do I need to start meeting it?

You need to start meeting the work requirement in the first full month of getting FoodShare benefits. When a FoodShare application is approved, anyone on the application who needs to meet the work requirement is referred to the FSET program.

Which adults ages 18 through 52 are exempt from the work requirement?

You may be exempt and may not need to meet the work requirement if any of the following is true:

- You are living with a child who is under age 18 who is part of the same FoodShare household, even if the child is not eligible for FoodShare benefits.
- You are the primary caretaker for a person who cannot care for themselves (whether the person lives in your home or out of your home).
- You are the primary caretaker for a dependent child under age 6 (whether the child lives in your home or out of your home). However, if you and another person both have parental control of the child, only one of you can be exempt from FoodShare work requirement as the primary caregiver of that child.
- You are physically or mentally unable to work.
- You are experiencing homelessness. This includes people who are in a temporary housing situation, such as transitional living arrangements and shelters, or staying temporarily (up to 90 days) at another person's residence.
- You are pregnant.
- You are receiving or have applied for unemployment compensation.
- You are taking part in an alcohol or other drug abuse (AODA) treatment or rehabilitation program.
- You are enrolled at least half-time in a recognized school or institution of higher learning.
- You are age 18 or older attending high school at least half-time.
- You are enrolled in W-2 and meeting W-2 participation requirements.
- You are working 30 or more hours per week or are earning weekly wages of $217.50 or more.
- You are an 18- to 24-year-old who was in foster care, a subsidized guardianship, or court-ordered kinship care, when you turned 18.

- You are a veteran. A veteran is a person who served in the United States Armed Forces (including the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Space Force, Coast Guard, National Guard, and Armed Forces Reserve) and was discharged or released under any conditions.

Note: You may need to provide proof that you have an exemption.

What if I do not meet the work requirement?

If you need to meet the work requirement and do not meet it, you may be limited to three months of FoodShare benefits in a 36-month (three-year) period. The current time limit period began on January 1, 2022, and continues until December 31, 2024. To keep getting FoodShare benefits after the three months, you must meet the work requirement, have an exemption, or wait until your 36-month period has passed.

How do I get help meeting the work requirement?

You will be referred to the free and voluntary FSET program when you renew or apply for FoodShare benefits if you need to meet the work requirement and are not already working or participating in a work program for at least 80 hours each month, or a combination of both.

FSET can help you meet the work requirement. FSET offers free services to help you build job skills and find employment. For more information on FoodShare or the FSET program:
