<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>DISCIPLINE</th>
<th>REQUIREMENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Lead-Safe Renovator&lt;br&gt;Performs or directs workers who perform renovation activities in pre-1978 housing or child-occupied facilities.</td>
<td>Training. 8-hour Lead-Safe Renovation class. Apply for certification and pay the $75 (2 year) or $150 (4 year) fee. Refresher training required every 4 years (4 hours). Renew certification every 2 years for $75 or 4 years for $150. Apply at least one month before current certification expires.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abatement Worker&lt;br&gt;Performs lead abatement under direct supervision by a certified supervisor, and if trained in Wisconsin, may act as the certified lead-safe renovator on renovation jobs.</td>
<td>Training. 8-hour Lead-Safe Renovation class plus 8-hour Lead Abatement Work class. If you took Abatement Work training outside of Wisconsin, you must also take a separate Lead-Safe Renovation class in order to be eligible to act as the certified lead-safe renovator on a renovation job. Apply for certification and pay the $100 fee. Refresher training required every 2 years (8 hours). Renew certification every 2 years for $100. Apply at least one month before current certification expires.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abatement Supervisor&lt;br&gt;Supervises and performs lead abatement and lead-safe renovation (if trained in Wisconsin), and maintains required records.</td>
<td>Experience. Meet one of these requirements: 1 year experience as a certified lead abatement worker, OR, 2 years or more experience in a related field, such as asbestos or mold remediation, building trades, construction, painting, remodeling, or maintenance. Training. 8-hour Lead-Safe Renovation course plus 8-hour Lead Abatement Work course plus 16-hour Lead Abatement Supervision course. If you took Abatement Supervision training outside of Wisconsin, you must also take a separate Lead-Safe Renovation class in order to be eligible to act as the certified lead-safe renovator on a renovation job. Apply for certification and pay the $275 certification and $75 exam fees. Pass the state exam within 6 months after completing training. Refresher training required every 2 years (8 hours). Renew certification every 2 years for $275. Apply at least one month before current certification expires.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Project Designer&lt;br&gt;Designs complex lead hazard reduction projects, develops occupant protection plans, and writes lead hazard reduction reports.</td>
<td>Professional education and/or experience. Meet one of these requirements: Bachelor’s degree or professional certification in engineering, architecture or related building construction and design, with 1 year or more experience in building design, construction or a related field, OR, 4 years or more experience in building construction, design, or related field. Training. 8-hour Lead-Safe Renovation course plus 8-hour Lead Abatement Work course plus 16-hour Lead Abatement Supervision course. Apply for certification and pay the $375 fee. Refresher training required every 2 years (8 hours). Renew certification every 2 years for $375. Apply at least one month before current certification expires.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
LEAD INVESTIGATION DISCIPLINES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>DISCIPLINE</th>
<th>REQUIREMENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Sampling Technician           | Training. 8-hour Lead Sampling Technician course.
Apply for certification and pay the $75 fee.
Refresher training every 2 years (4 hours).
Renew certification every 2 years for $75. Apply at least one month before current certification expires. |
| Inspector                     | Training. 8-hour Lead Sampling Technician course plus 16-hour Lead Inspection course plus XRF manufacturer’s training with hands-on component.
Apply for certification and pay the $325 certification and $75 exam fees.
Pass the state exam within 6 months after completing training.
Refresher training every 2 years (8 hours).
Renew certification every 2 years for $325. Apply at least one month before current certification expires. |
| Hazard Investigator           | Professional education and/or experience. Meet one of these options: Bachelor’s degree with 1 year or more related experience in lead, asbestos or environmental remediation, building trades, home inspections, or construction, OR, associate’s degree and 2 years or more related experience in lead, asbestos or environmental remediation, building trades, home inspections, or construction, OR, professional certificate as an industrial hygienist, professional engineer, architect or related profession or registered nurse or sanitarian employed by a health department
Training. 8-hour Lead Sampling Technician course plus 16-hour Lead Hazard Investigation course.
Apply for certification and pay the $325 certification and $75 exam fees.
Pass the state exam within 6 months after completing training.
Refresher training every 2 years (8 hours).
Renew certification every 2 years for $325. Apply at least one month before current certification expires. |
| Risk Assessor                 | Professional education and/or experience. Meet one of these options: Bachelor’s degree with 1 year or more related experience in lead, asbestos or environmental remediation, building trades, home inspection, or construction, OR, associate’s degree and 2 years or more related experience in lead, asbestos or environmental remediation, building trades, home inspection, or construction, OR, professional certificate as an industrial hygienist, professional engineer, architect or related profession or registered nurse or sanitarian employed by a health department
Training. 8-hour Lead Sampling Technician course plus 16-hour Lead Inspection course, plus 16-hour Lead Hazard Investigation course plus XRF manufacturer’s training with hands-on component.
Apply for certification and pay the $375 certification and $75 exam fees.
Pass the state exam within 6 months after completing training.
Refresher training every 2 years (8 hours).
Renew certification every 2 years for $375. Apply at least one month before current certification expires. |

---

1. Applicants with out-of-state training have additional requirements. See the application form for details or call 608-261-6876 with questions.