FULL TITLE: FoodShare Employment and Training (FSET) Administration GPR 50% and FED 50%

REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS: These funds are used for administrative expenses funded by the FSET grant. Administrative expenses reimbursed through this funding category, also known as a Base Allocation or 50/50 funding, are covered by 50 percent State General Purpose Revenue (GPR) and 50 percent Federal dollars. This type of funding and all other categories of 50 percent funding refers to a reimbursement rate of 50 percent of total allowable expenses incurred by the tribal agency. For every dollar the agency incurs as an allowable expense, fifty cents will be reimbursed with federal funding and fifty cents with State GPR funds.

These funds must to be used for planning, implementation, and operation of FSET, including case management, service coordination, advertising, and outreach efforts designed to assist FSET participants in obtaining unsubsidized employment. These funds may be used for administrative expenses incurred when providing job retention services up to ninety (90) days after employment is secured as a result of the FSET participation
