Since opening in 2001, Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Center (SRSTC) has been a leader in the evaluation and treatment of sexual violence. The work performed at SRSTC enhances public safety in Wisconsin by reducing the level of sexual violence in society.

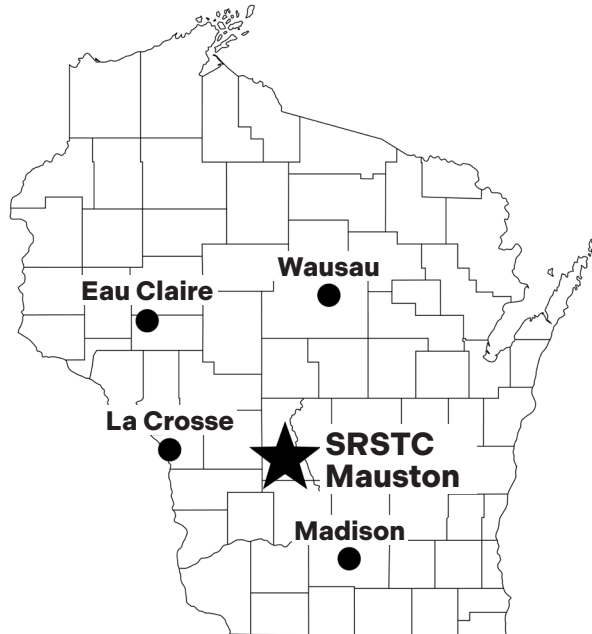

The men living at SRSTC have been committed to care of the Department of Health Services because of their history of sexual violence and mental health needs.

Join the SRSTC team and enjoy a career that matters!

SRSTC is located in Mauston, a community surrounded by opportunities to bike, camp, fish, hike, and hunt.
