School is too much fun to miss.

- Everyone 6 months and older should get a flu vaccine. This means kids—and their parents, grandparents, and other caregivers.

- This season, protect yourself—and your family—by getting a flu vaccine.

For information on where you and your child can get a flu vaccine, visit www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/influenza