Save money. Live independently.

Your disability benefit specialist (DBS) is an expert in the benefits available to you. Your DBS can help you find programs and options to save you money and protect your independence.

Your Bridge To Support

Your local DBS can help you access benefits that may:

- Increase your income.
- Pay for your health care and medications.
- Reduce your expenses.

Who can see a DBS?

You can get help from your local DBS if you:

- Are a legal guardian of an eligible person.
- Have a disability.
- Live in Wisconsin.

Get expert advice.

Your DBS can help you:

- Advocate on your behalf.
- Apply for programs that will save you money.
- Compare options for health insurance, benefit programs, or solutions to an issue.
- File appeals when you are denied disability benefits, health care or drug coverage, or other benefits.
- Refer you to an attorney when necessary.

*"I felt like my benefit specialist was really in my corner, that I wasn't going through this alone, and that meant the world to me."
