

BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Plan

The BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Plan provides health care for pregnant women who have been denied BadgerCare Plus because of their immigration or citizenship status or who are in prison or jail.

Covered Benefits

This plan covers services such as:

- Prenatal care.
- Doctor and clinic visits.
- Prescription drugs (including prenatal vitamins).
- Labor and delivery.

You may be able to enroll if you meet all of the following:

- You live in Wisconsin.
- You provide medically verified proof of your pregnancy.
- You have family income at or below the monthly income limit listed under Income Limits for 2017.
- You have not dropped health insurance.
- You do not have insurance or access to an employer-sponsored health insurance plan for which the employer pays 80% or more of the monthly premium.

Note: If you are not a U.S. citizen or you are an undocumented immigrant, a Social Security number is not required. Information about your family will not be shared with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services.

Income Limits for 2017

Family Size	Monthly Income Limit
2	$4,141.19
3	$5,207.11
4	$6,273.00

For each additional person, add $1,065.89.

Note: Include your unborn baby or babies in your family size.

How to Apply

You can apply for the BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Plan online at access.wisconsin.gov, by phone, in person at your local agency, or by completing a paper application and mailing it to your local agency. To get a paper application, to ask for help completing the application, or to find your local agency, go to dhs.wisconsin.gov/forwardhealth/resources.htm, or contact Member Services at 1-800-362-3002.

It is important to apply as soon as possible since the date you can start getting benefits is the first of the month in which you apply and meet all plan rules.

If You Are Not Eligible

If you are not able to get benefits through the BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Plan, and you are not a U.S. citizen or you are an undocumented immigrant, you can apply for the Emergency Services Plan. The Emergency Services Plan will only cover labor and delivery costs.
