UNTRAINED EMPLOYEES CAN COST YOU. WE CAN HELP.

When your employees sell any tobacco product to young people under the age of 21, your business pays the price. But there's an easy way to avoid expensive license suspensions and fines. Training your employees is required by law and you can do it for free at WITobaccoCheck.org, a state-approved online and mobile friendly tool for learning tobacco sales laws.

Fast. Easy. Free. And good for business.

At WITobaccoCheck.org, employees can use study guides, take an online test and even print out a certificate of completion when their training's done. In minutes, they'll get all the training they'll need. And you'll get a better-prepared employee.

To get started, set up your free store account at WITobaccoCheck.org. It's the hassle-free way to avoid costly fines—and help Wisconsin's youth stay tobacco-free.
