REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS:

The Department of Health Services allowable cost policy manual applies. Report expenditures electronically using the form required by the Department. Summary: The Bureau of Children's Services (BCS) has developed a grant proposal to provide funds for Innovation in Social-Emotional Development in the Birth to 3 Program. These grants will be awarded to counties to support the implementation of evidence-based practices and system changes to improve social-emotional development of children enrolled in the Birth to 3 Program. Funds provided to counties through this profile are intended to be spent only for the activities that are defined in their proposal.
