PROFILE DESCRIPTION: Primary Prevention – At least 20 percent (20%) of the SAPTBG community allocation funds must be expended on primary prevention programs for individuals who do not require treatment for substance use disorder. The SAPTBG provides that prevention programs are for individuals who do not require treatment for a substance use disorder. Such programs and activities may include education, mentoring, and other activities designed to reduce the risk of substance use disorders by individuals. Note: Early intervention activities and SBIRT (Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment) are not eligible “primary prevention” programs or activities.
