Non Resident funds support emergency detention services provided to non-Wisconsin residents under s. 51.15 Stats. by County agencies and will be approved on a quarterly basis. The following are types of services provided to non-residents who are eligible for reimbursement; medical clearance, inpatient psychiatric or substance abuse treatment facility, crisis intervention programming, community based treatment programs for crisis-related needs, transportation to court hearing or to return to home state, and others as approved by DCTS. There is no match requirement for these funds.
