Summary of Services: To provide multiple follow-up contacts with HIV-diagnosed persons to ensure they are accessing appropriate care and treatment services, using confidentiality and counseling protocols based on those used for single-contact Partner Counseling and Referral Services. Through individualized and confidential counseling sessions, staff will advise individuals newly diagnosed with HIV about available care and treatment options, and follow-up with their clients at regular intervals to review client progress towards accessing needed services. Also, follow-up with previously diagnosed persons with HIV who may have experienced barriers to accessing health services on a consistent basis. Finally agencies will track client outcomes regarding access to and enrollment in HIV care and treatment services.
